PROCEDURES FOR INSCRIPTIONS ON THE MEMORIAL WALL

Approved inscriptions will be undertaken by the Council on receipt of the appropriate fee (see details of fees printed on front of form). This fee includes the cost of the work carried out by the stonemason.

Each line of the inscription may have a maximum of 22 characters (i.e.: letters and numbers). The inscription, comprising one Christian name, initials of any other Christian names, surname and date of death will be engraved in $\frac{3}{4}$ inch lettering.

Example: JAMES E. SMITH 10.11.1998 (This inscription contains 19 characters)

If the required inscription contains more than 22 characters and cannot be abbreviated (for example by omitting initials of other (middle) Christian names), an additional fee will be payable for each additional line used.

Inscriptions will be made when thirty six applications have been received to complete a new panel on the Memorial Wall and, at the current rate of applications, a new panel is completed approximately every 18 months.

The inscriptions will appear in the sequence of the applications received.

Applications for inscriptions must be made on the form printed overleaf and delivered to Rushden Town Council at the address below, together with the necessary fee (see details printed overleaf).

The Council will provide stone containers in which floral tributes may be placed at the foot of the Memorial Wall. Members of the public may provide their own containers provided they are made of a suitable stone material and do not exceed 200mm x 200mm x 200mm.

Please note that only fresh flowers may be placed in these containers.

The Cemetery Superintendent may remove flowers when he considers that they have wilted.

No other containers (such as pots, jugs, vases, bottles, etc.) may be used for floral tributes.

Cremated remains may be scattered in the rose beds surrounding the Memorial Walls by arrangement with Rushden Town Council, without payment of any fee.
